

YOUR CHOICE

Becomes our story.

HOUSE RULES

Welcome to our home, like any legendary share house we have some rules...

- Look after our place like you would your own.
- You don't have the right to touch someone without their permission, respect their personal space.
- No means no.
- If you or someone else needs help, call us to assist – we're all here for you.
- Be a do-er, not a me too-er, if someone's doing something dodge, call them out, report it.
- Throw a party, not a projectile.
- Respect our neighbourhood, this is our home and we're here to stay.
- We're rolling out the welcome mat, it's important we all feel comfortable, everyone is welcome here.
- Tom Waits in line, so should you.
- Radiate sass, not crass.
- Take responsibility, there are no pass-outs on bad behaviour.
- Rhianna attitude with Drake feelings; think before you act.
- Choose your own adventure, don't ruin the festibus for the rest of us.
